

An invitation to apply for Part-Time Teaching Positions in the Theater Department at Baltimore School for the Arts

The Baltimore School for the Arts, a pre-professional public arts high school in Baltimore, MD, serving 450 students in grades 9-12, seeks to hire an exceptional and highly qualified Digital Design teacher for our 9th through 12th grade Stage Design and Production students. The ideal candidate will be an experienced web-based artist, illustrator, and web-site designer who has particular expertise in Photoshop, InDesign, and Illustrator. We seek a candidate who will inspire our Stage Design and Production students to build partnerships and engage in a highly collaborative working environment. The ideal candidate demonstrates success guiding students on a journey to find their own creative voice through theater. Adaptability and flexibility are key. Two 90-minute classes a week (August 23, 2021 - June 15, 2022).

The Baltimore School for the Arts, a pre-professional public arts high school in Baltimore, MD, serving 450 students in grades 9-12, seeks to hire an exceptional Technical Director/Lead Carpenter to oversee the construction and load-in of all Theater Department productions. The ideal candidate will be an experienced lead carpenter of a scene shop and a teacher of 9th through 12th graders. This position requires excellent time-management, communication/organizational skills, and the ability to mentor student carpenters. We seek a candidate who will inspire our Stage Design and Production students to work safely with attention to detail while engaging in a highly collaborative working environment. The ideal candidate demonstrates success guiding students on a journey to find their own creative voice through theater. Adaptability and flexibility are key. Five 90-minute classes + three non-contact hours a week (August 23, 2021 - June 15, 2022).

The Baltimore School for the Arts, a pre-professional public arts high school in Baltimore, MD, serving 450 students in grades 9-12, seeks to hire an exceptional Lighting Design Teacher/Electrician to oversee lighting for all BSA productions. The ideal candidate will be an experienced lighting designer, electrician, ETC Ion/Element programmer and teacher of 9th through 12th graders. This position requires excellent time-management, communication/organizational skills, and the ability to mentor student designers. We seek a candidate who will inspire our Stage Design and Production students to work safely with attention to detail while engaging in a highly collaborative working environment. The ideal candidate demonstrates success guiding students on a journey to find their own creative voice through theater. Adaptability and flexibility are key. Six 90-minute classes + two non-contact hours a week (August 23, 2021 - June 15, 2022).

Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to the attention of Interim Theater Department Head, Julianne Franz at jfranz@bsfa.org.

The Baltimore School for the Arts actively strives to be a diverse and inclusive community in its educational, admission, and employment practices. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, disability, or any other characteristic. We seek candidates who demonstrate sensitivity, knowledge, and understanding of the diverse backgrounds of community members; have an ability to work flexibly, independently, and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment with individuals from a diverse set of backgrounds; and have a capacity to serve as a model of openness, generosity, and acceptance.