

Honors Advanced Production Instructor

The Charles C. Baum Film and Visual Storytelling Department is looking for an instructor to teach a high school senior class with approximately 16 students once a week on a part-time basis. The candidate must have experience in the film industry, with a working knowledge of all aspects of film production. Previous teaching experience is not necessary, however, a passion for working with young people is a must.

The class runs a full school year from August 2025 to June 2026, totaling 34 weeks. A curriculum outline is provided and centered around the senior capstone show.

Responsibilities include:

- Teaching an established curriculum
- Maintaining attendance records
- Submission of Grades / Reports
- Attending two faculty meetings per year (one per semester)

Requirements & skills:

- BFA, BA, or union membership
- Working knowledge of film production
- Strong communication skills
- Good attitude and friendly disposition
- Punctual and responsible
- Must be able to pass a background check

Rate upon request.

Interested applicants should send a resume to the attention of the film department chair, Beatriz Bufrahi at bbufrahi@bsfa.org.

The Baltimore School for the Arts actively strives to be a diverse and inclusive community in its educational, admission, and employment practices. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, disability, or any other characteristic. We seek candidates who demonstrate sensitivity, knowledge, and understanding of the diverse backgrounds of community members; have an ability to work flexibly, independently, and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment with individuals from a diverse set of backgrounds; and have a capacity to serve as a model of openness, generosity, and acceptance.